

Maryam Imogen Ghouth

What I do

I publish poetry as written pieces, audio recordings, and poetry films in collaboration with a range of artists, including composers, cinematographers, film directors, and animators. My debut poetry chapbook in Arabic and English (audio and print) is forthcoming. I am currently working on a philosophical memoir about the sense of self.

What I write about

I combine the tenets of psychology with the big questions of philosophy, challenge social narratives, ponder existential unknowns and give voice to the raw emotions undulating the human experience. I am especially drawn to topics that shed light on the coincidence of opposites, the sheer miracle of existence, and the interplay between the physical and the intangible.
